IEP welcomes new board member

Indigenous Employment Partners (IEP) is proud to announce the appointment of Jade Miller (Yorta Yorta) to our board.

Jade is the President and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of Indigenous National Technology & Telecom Network (INTTN) and is currently appointed to a State of Victoria Traditional Owner Land Management Board and holds the audit, risk and financial management portfolio.

Jade brings 20 years business experience to the IEP Board, in both governance and executive leadership roles and has a proven track record of building business and organisations from start-up through to established businesses.

IEP is thrilled to have Jade joining our Board and we very much welcome the contribution he will make in supporting IEP's strategies, business development, marketing, fundraising, monitoring performance, managing risk and ensuring regulatory compliance.

“Jade’s experience in management and governance in both the Charities and Not for profit and the for profit sectors will bring a level of skills to our board which will strengthen both our governance and service delivery and help us achieve our vision of contributing to ending the cycle of poverty and disadvantage experienced by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples by building capacity and fostering self-sufficiency through employment.”
