

Continuous Improvement at Indigenous Employment Partners

On Thursday 7 March and Friday 8th March Central Australian remote Health Development Services (CARHDS) from Alice Springs, Tauondi College from Adelaide, Building Indigenous Capability (BIC) from Canberra and Indigenous Employment Partners met at the Indigenous Employment Partners offices to review the 10139NAT Course in Indigenous Mentoring.

On day one staff reviewed feedback from course participants and made improvements to the training materials based on this feedback.

Vicki from Tauondi, Veronica from BIC, Dennis from IEP and Raelene from CARHDS.

On day two we explored ways we can improve the learning experiences for participants in the future including putting some parts of the course online.
